YOUR LIBRARY
Curtin Law students studying at 57 Murray Street may use the Library located at the Curtin Graduate School of Business (CGSB) across the road.

Essential texts, legal reference items, recommended readings, and print/copy facilities are available here. Lockers are also available for charging laptops and devices.

BORROWING
Items from the Curtin Graduate School of Business (CGSB) Library collection can not be loaned. They are for use in the Library only.

Items from other Curtin libraries (such as Bentley) can be requested and collected from the CGSB Library, when staff are in attendance.

LIBRARY CARD
Your Curtin student ID card is also your library card. You will need it to borrow items and to swipe into the CGSB Library.

REQUESTING ITEMS
The Library catalogue is a useful resource for finding books, journal articles, exam papers and other materials for your research and study. All items available for borrowing can be collected from the Curtin Graduate School of Business (CGSB) on request.

- Go to the Library catalogue at catalogue.curtin.edu.au or use the search box on the Library homepage (pictured).
- Log in.
- Search for your item. You can refine your search on the results page, by selecting the appropriate options on the left.
- If an item is showing as available, click on the ‘Request’ link. Select Curtin Graduate School of Business Library as your pickup location. For an electronic item, click ‘online resource’ to access the resource.

REQUIRED READINGS
Access required readings from the Reading List link within your Blackboard unit. This will link you through to the Library catalogue and access information.

REFERENCING

REFERENCING SOFTWARE
Referencing software helps you store, manage and search your references. Law students can use Zotero or EndNote to insert footnotes in a Word document and create a bibliography using the Australian Guide to Legal Citation.
