

Checklist for your References

- Your reference list should be at the end of your paper on a separate page
- Label the page References centred at the top of the page (it should not be bold, underlined or have quotation marks around it)
- The reference list is double spaced with each reference having a hanging indent for the second and subsequent lines
- References are arranged alphabetically by the author's/editor's family name or organisation name. Where there is no author use the first word of the title (other than A, An or The)
- Both the main title and the subtitle follow a sentence case style except for proper nouns
